

LASER HORIZON. SLIGHTLY SPORTIER. SERIOUS SAVINGS.

HAVE YOU DRIVEN A FORD...LATELY?

There comes a time in the life of every young family when mum and dad trade in the sports car on something sensible, practical, economical and boring.

Right?

Well, right except for the boring bit. Because the limited edition Ford Laser Horizon is anything but.

Laser Horizon features great sporty extras at no extra cost. Extras that'll please the boy racer in every dad and the girl racer in every mum. And do it without breaking the family budget.

The first thing you'll notice is the handsome alloy road wheels, followed by the racy spoiler on the back, and a unique Horizon decal.

Slip into the attractive blue driver's seat and notice the sporty dash - which includes power mirrors, and warning lights for malfunctioning stop lamp, low fuel and low washer fluid level.

If you slip behind the wheel at night, you'll appreciate the illuminated ignition lock and an interior dome lamp with spotlighting.

And when you get out, you'll be thankful for the "lights-on" warning chime. In all, about a thousand dollars worth of extras, thrown in without costing you a cent more.

Which is something every family will like, no matter how sporting they are.
